Oxford Defeats Micks

Oxford, Kans., (Special)—Coach Clifford Barnhart's Oxford high school team defeated St. Mary's (Cathedral) of Wichita here last night, 45 to 44, in a fiercely contested non-league game.

Oxford had to come from far behind to win. But the Sumner county lads rallied and used free throws with deadly accuracy to take the verdict by a single point.

St. Mary's soared into a first period lead, 28 to 7, with Gebert showing the way. Oxford fought back and had shaved the lead somewhat at the half, Cathedral leading at the half by 25 to 19.

FINALLY CLOSE GAP

Oxford continued to gain and the Micks led at the start of the final stanza by only two points, 38 to 31. In the final heat Oxford passed the visitors and edged them by one point.

OXFORD TEAM WINS

Valley Center, Kans., (Special)—Oxford beat Valley Center, 34 to 29, here last night in a Sumwick league game.

Clearwater, Kans., (Special)—It took an overtime period and a sudden death to turn the trick but Clearwater turned back Oxford here last night, 41 to 40, in a Sumwick league game.

The 1949 Class B champions led, 22 to 13, at the half but Oxford knotted the count and two overtimes were required to decide the issue.

In the preliminary game Clearwater won, 28 to 25.

Oxford Wins Over Burden Team
